

Photo in Memory and Commentary of a Person whom meant so much to me, af# AL112518-P,

* Personal commentary in Good Remembrance of a dear Friend.

For the longest time I had pondered upon whether or Not to do any of this and, How to compose my sentiments in best possible ways. So to not sound as if any sort of bitterness nor resentments at all.

Life is like that, We never know whenever anything can suddenly happen, that was totally Not-Anticipated, Totally Not-Expected nor ever intended, that just happens.

It is a very true fact that in our daily life anything unanticipated or unexpected can infact suddenly happen as it did with me, in ways that can totally changed anyone's entire life path. We don't need look too far, TV News Media daily the world over anything can happen is true reality.

 I post this exact image in a photo of a woman whom for so many years meant so much to me.

● We had steadily dated for many years prior to my incarceration.

* My former girlfriend is Not bad looking for a 40 something year old, Eh?

* In Memory of Her was all I had since thereafter 2008 that kept me alive and going in hopes that I'd survive past prison.

 Of Course she has long since gone in living her own life. And I can fully understand and respect her for her wishes, did not expect her, a glamorous looking woman with such beautifully good looks to my Eyes, Heart and Mind, to waited for me by unknown circumstances if I may even survive past this lengthy very horrific for me prison ordeal.

* Hope and Faith in GOD is all that remains with me present day!

And I have spiritually Grown and come a very long way on my own since 2006. No going backwards at this point.

* Wherever she may be present day. I always wish her all my very best in prayers.

* Same as all others whom always very dear to me. In my heart and memories, I will always Love You...!!!

* I Give Sincere Thanks To GOD for known You and Good moments We've both shared together!

 May All of GOD's Goodness be with You...Always! ***
